A DEFINITION

Of the Duties of the Assistant Secretary of Agriculture.

THE DIVISIONS AND SECTIONS WHICH HE WILL CONTROL.

John C. Fremont and Nathaniel P. Banks Meet by Chance at the White House. Secretary of State Blaine's Health Improved—Navy Yards to be Closed on the 30th—Other National News.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—The following order has been issued by the secretary of agriculture:

In accordance with Section 2 of the act entitled, "An act to enlarge the powers and duties of the department of agriculture, and to create an executive department to be known as the department of agriculture," approved Feb. 9, 1889, the following assignments and duties are hereby prescribed for the assistant secretary of agriculture, and the following order is promulgated, in accordance therewith, to take effect at once:

The following named divisions and sections thereof are hereby transferred to the office of the assistant secretary, subject to the reservations hereinafter mentioned: The botanical division and the section of vegetable pathology, the pomological division, the microscopical division, the chemical division, the ornithological division, the forestry division, the entomological division and the silk section, and the office of experiment stations.

The assistant secretary will in general control and direct the scientific policy and operations of the above-named divisions and sections thereof, and all questions and correspondence involving the scientific work of said divisions and sections will be submitted to him for approval and signature.

All questions relating to the scientific operation and policy of the above-mentioned divisions, but in which questions of administrative policy are involved shall primarily be matters for consideration of the assistant secretary, but shall be submitted to the secretary for his approval before final action is taken.

All matters considered by, and all correspondence originating in either of the above-mentioned divisions, in which only an administrative feature or policy is involved, will be referred to and prepared for the approval of the secretary as heretofore.

The investigations and experiments in the manufacture of sugar from sorghum, etc., are expected from the above order.

Two Remarkable Men.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Two remarkable men, who attracted very little attention in Washington, as so many remarkable men do, met at the White House the other day by chance. One was small and dressed in the plainest sort of a blue suit, with his body stooped a little and somewhat irregular, greyish beard covered his wrinkled face. But his step was lively enough and his conversation lively still. He was John C. Fremont, the "Pathfinder," and Republican candidate for president in 1856.

The other man was somewhat taller and straighter. He had hair almost white, and a stubby moustache that was almost white. He was the very personification of stateliness and dignity. He was Nathaniel P. Banks, speaker of the National house in 1856, called the "Bobbin Boy," because he used to work in a mill in Walcham, Mass.; called also governor of his state just before the war, and a governor who had as much to do as Andrew did with the prompt response of Massachusetts to President Lincoln's call for troops. He returns now to the Fifty-first congress. He beat Col. Thomas Wentworth Higginson by a narrow margin, and becomes a plain, everyday member again of the body over which he once presided with autocratic swing. They paid their respects to President Harrison together and then had a good time talking over the days of long ago.

Joined the Customs' Union.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—In a long report to the state department upon German trade and commerce, James H. Smith, United States commercial agent at Mayence, refers to the incorporation into the German Customs union of the two great ports of Bremen and Hamburg. He says that now the anomaly of cities independent in customs matters and free ports of entry has been done away with, and the entrance of these old free ports into the customs union is another step in the direction in National consolidation and will be of much advantage to the country at large.

Railways in China.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—Consul Smithers, at Tientsin, reports to the state department that the Chinese government has recently authorized an extension of the Tientsin and Tongshan railway which will make it possible to reach Peking from Tientsin in about three hours, whereas it now requires as many days. The consul says that the opposition of the conservatives having at last been overcome, China may now be said to have fairly entered upon a career of railway construction.

Blaine Better.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—The rainy weather still continues and keeps Secretary Blaine in doors. Walker Blaine says his father is improving, and will no doubt be able to leave Washington for New York to attend the centennial celebration there.

To Be Given a Holiday.

WASHINGTON, April 29.—The secretary of the navy has directed that the navy yards be closed on the 30th inst. All study and work will be suspended on that day at the naval academy.

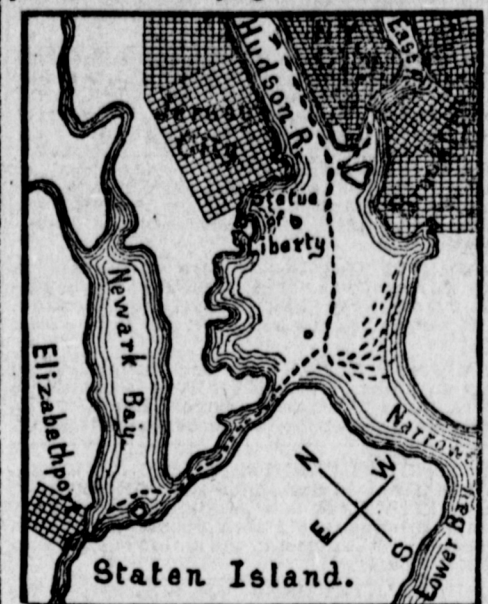

Fifty-Five Rounds to a Draw.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., April 29.—George Siddons and George Lavine fought fifty-five rounds Friday morning for the championship of Michigan and a purse of $1,000. The fight, which lasted from half-past 1 until 5 o'clock was declared a draw. Both men were severely punished.

THE CENTENNIAL.

The President Escorted From Elizabethport, New Jersey, to the Foot of Wall Street—A Great Naval Display.

NEW YORK, April 29.—All New York is in holiday attire. The centennial celebration of the inauguration of George Washington as first president of the United States really began this morning. Since April 18 at the Metropolitan opera house there has been an exhibition of the historical relics and portraits, which has been considered a part of the official program.

ROUTE OF THE NAVAL PARADE.

President Harrison arrived at Elizabethport, N. J., this morning, accompanied by his cabinet, and thousands were on hand to see him embark. One hundred years ago President Washington embarked at the same spot, and was taken by a barge from Elizabethport to the foot of Wall street. This time, however, a row boat is not quite the proper style of a ship, and ships of war, yachts and steamboats by the score are in the great naval parade.

The governors, commissioners of states and other guests left the Twenty-third street slip about 9 o'clock on the steamer Erastus Wiman, and met the president's steamer off Elizabethport at 11 o'clock, and amid the cheers from the thousands on the boats the naval procession headed for Castle Garden, and up East river.

It seems as if there is not a space left on any boat or building that was not provided with a flag or streamer, while the public buildings are simply a mass of bunting and flags.

The navy department at Washington, three presidential flags made especially for the celebration. They are the largest presidential flags ever made, being 17 feet long and 10 feet wide. They are of deep blue bunting. The presidential device, a spread eagle with shield, occupies the centre. The flags are flung from the sub-treasury, the Equitable building and the city hall.

The naval parade is due at the foot of Wall street at 2 o'clock, but will hardly arrive on time. The president and other guests will be escorted to the Equitable building, where a reception and a collation is awaiting them.

Will Make a Reduction.

BRAIDWOOD, Ill., April 29.—At a meeting of the miners and mine operators held here Friday the miners were notified that owing to the low price of coal, the price for mining will be reduced ten cents per ton after May 1. The price for mining at present is eighty cents per ton. The miners withhold their decision awaiting the action of the Twelfth district convention, which will be held at Streator the 30th.

Eight Years for Assault.

LAPORTE, Ind., April 29.—Gorman Gibson, a negro claiming residence in Chicago, was arrested Thursday afternoon for criminally attacking Mrs. Charles Eggert, near Wanauch, this county. His trial was held Friday morning. He was found guilty, and the judge sent him to prison for eight years.

Strange Malady.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 29.—Advices from Pauline, Ark., say a strange and fatal disease is prevailing in that community. The symptoms are a heavy chill with a cough. The skin turns yellow prior to death. Several deaths have occurred.

The Nipsic Again Disabled.

LONDON, April 29.—A dispatch from Auckland says that the United States steamer Nipsic was again disabled while being towed in Apia harbor. Mataafa has returned to Apia.

INDIANA'S LOAN.

Its Negotiation Declared Legal by the Supreme Court.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 29.—The supreme court handed down an opinion Friday afternoon sustaining the constitutionality of what is known as the state loan bill, which authorizes the state officers to issue bonds providing for a loan of $1,400,000, with which to meet the demands upon the treasury. These bonds were issued, and the German Savings bank, of New York, was the successful bidder, but afterward raised objection that the law authorizing them was unconstitutional. Judge Mitchell wrote the opinion, in which all the judges concur, and he holds that the legislature is the judge whether or not a deficit exists, the contrary being claimed. The decision gives great relief, as the benevolent institutions are sadly strained for want of funds, and money is also imperatively needed to meet the appropriations of the last general assembly in other ways.

Dropped Dead in the Ring.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—During a sparring exhibition Friday night between Ed. Coffee, a recent arrival from the east, and Tom Avery, a well known local prize fighter, the latter fell dead. It was a proposed six-round contest, and in the fourth round Avery fell unconscious to the floor, where he expired in few minutes. A physician said death was due to heart failure caused by over exertion.

WARNED TO LEAVE

Disappointed Oklahoma Boomers on the Cherokee Strip.

CAPTAIN HAYES JUST THE MAN TO SETTLE THE DIFFICULTY

Without Trouble, as He Is Beloved by the Settlers—A Case of Smallpox Reported From Arkansas City—Is It a Scheme? A Wind Storm Gets In Its Work—Provisions Scarce—Wrecks.

CHICAGO, April 29.—A News special from Guthrie, O. T., says:

Settling upon the Cherokee strip progresses in increasing volume. Many camps are visible from the railroad, and boomers at the stations declare that it is their purpose to squat there. It is reported that plowing and planting is well under way at numerous points. The troops have not yet moved.

Capt. Jack Hayes reached Ponca Friday; and sent out couriers to give the squatters three days' notice to quit the strip. He is much beloved by the settlers for the inextinguishable kindness he has shown them in the march down, and the practical help he gave them. He is the man of all men to peacefully settle the impending controversy if it can be settled.

Those Alleged Deputy Marshals.

Needles and Jones, the two marshals who hold authority, have left Guthrie. Commissioner Stockslager's declaration that he would forfeit the claims of all United States employees is regarded with suspicion, as it is now generally understood that the deputies were not sworn in, and the other hired go-brothers are not technically in the Federal service. It is demanded that the government declare a forfeiture of the claims of all persons irrespective of employment, who were in the Oklahoma tract before Monday noon.

It is estimated that Guthrie has just six times the area allowed to it by the law, but this is easily remedied. The different town sites will all be entered under the names of East, West, North and South Guthrie. There is a scheme to enter Northeast Guthrie, but it has not yet been decided.

Among successful emigrants leaving Oklahoma by the Caldwell trail was one philosophical individual. Said he: "I wanted land, water and trees, all three. I searched carefully and found trees and water, but another fellow had the land."

Case of Smallpox Reported.

CHICAGO, April 29.—A Tribune special from Arkansas City, Kan., says: A man named Ellsworth was taken down Friday with smallpox. The physician in attendance says there is no doubt of its being that dreaded disease, and refuses to allow the mother and wife of the sick man to see him for fear of spreading the contagion. The man had been feeling bad for a week past.

He went with the crowd of boomers to Guthrie last Monday, and Tuesday, while coming down with the fever incident to this disease, stood for hours in the line at the postoffice at Guthrie, trying to get his mail. From there he went to Oklahoma City, from which place he returned here Wednesday morning and took to his bed, where he has been growing worse ever since.

The People Alarmed.

The inhabitants of Guthrie and Oklahoma City are almost in a state of panic, fearing that the scourge may break out in their midst. An epidemic of such a kind might depopulate either place and terrify the residents of nearly every town in this western country.

Tents Blown Down.

A terrible wind storm Friday afternoon prostrated almost every tent in Guthrie, and many of the inhabitants have to sleep in the open air.

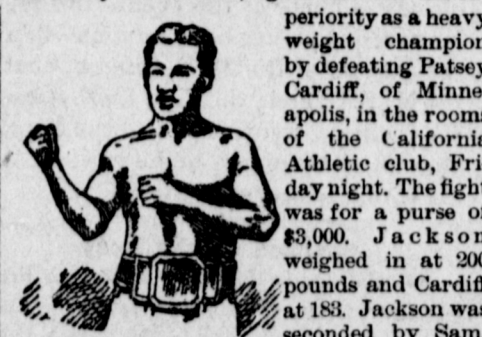

Grub Scarce—Two Wrecks.

Provisions are growing scarcer in the tented towns. Hundreds of cars are delayed on the side track by the two recent wrecks on the Santa Fe between Guthrie and Edmond, where the Chicago colony is located. The numerous reports of murderous affrays on account of claim jumping are generally discredited here.

SPORTING NEWS.

Pete Jackson Defeats Patsy Cardiff—Fight at Grand Rapids.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 29.—Peter Jackson, the dusky Australian, again asserted his superiority as a heavy weight champion by defeating Patsy Cardiff, of Minneapolis, in the rooms of the California Athletic club, Friday night. The fight was for a purse of $3,000. Jackson weighed in at 200 pounds and Cardiff at 183. Jackson was seconded by Sam. Fitzpatrick and

PETE JACKSON.

Jack Haines, and Cardiff by John Donaldson and Tommy Warren. Hiram Cook was referee.

For seven rounds it was a stubborn fight, although Jackson had to his credit the hardest blows. In the eighth and ninth Cardiff was groggy, and could do nothing but defend himself feebly. In the tenth Jackson forced him to his corner, and, standing over him, struck blow after blow. Spectators urged Jackson to knock him out. Cardiff staggered to a chair, and Jackson urged him to give it up. The Minneapolis man nodded a feeble assent, and three minutes before the gong sounded Jackson walked to his corner the winner.

NEW YORK CITY CROWDED

With Strangers to the Washington Inaugural Centennial—The Preparations for the Great Event All Completed.

NEW YORK, April 29.—The centennial crush has begun, and every train coming in is packed with visitors to the great celebration. By Monday night there will be the biggest crowd here in the history of the city. The managers of the big military parade are having a hard time of it providing quarters for the militia as they arrive.

Every available armory and hall has been engaged for the accommodation of the visiting soldiers, and yet it is feared that there will not be room enough to go around. This will be more readily understood when it is stated that something like 40,000 soldiers from other states will be here Monday. Even the boats at the wharves are being utilized as sleeping places for the soldiery.

The streets, hotels, theatres and all public places are jammed as they never were before. It is an easy matter to distinguish the strangers from the New Yorkers, owing to differences in dress and manners, and by the intense appreciation of all the sights of the town which the visitors display.

The city is beautifully decorated, and everything wears a festive appearance. Broadway in particular has donned a splendid holiday attire, and there is scarcely a building from the Battery to Harlem that is not decorated. Exorbitant prices are being paid for seats in the reviewing stands. The finishing touches have been put on the ball and banquet rooms of the Metropolitan opera house, and the sub-treasury, where the literary exercises are to take place. In short, all the preparations for the great event are about complete, and everyone is fervently praying for good weather to make its success positive.

Governor Hill has issued a proclamation, making Wednesday, May 1, a special holiday for the cities of New York and Brooklyn, a day's continuance of the centennial season. Commercial paper falling due on Wednesday is payable on Thursday.

The Civic Parade on Wednesday.

Gen. Butterfield says that the civic parade would be something that has never been equalled in magnificence and variety in this country, or perhaps in the world. The floats he describes as marvels. Among the historical floats will be representations of Washington and his generals, Washington at Valley Forge, Washington crossing the Delaware, Washington's farewell to his generals, and Washington's inauguration in 1789 in New York. The Swiss float will carry a representation of William Tell and twenty-two ladies, one for each of the twenty-two cantons of Switzerland, in costume, the whole surmounted by a wreath with the coat of arms of Switzerland, and the inscription, "A Republic of 500 years." This float will be preceded by a live bear, the emblem of Switzerland.

In the procession gold beaters will be at work beating gold, and the workers in iron will be beating and manufacturing iron; the marble cutters will saw and cut marble, plasterers will be modeling in plaster and plastering a house. In the representation of the tobacco industry there will be a hundred plantation negroes singing plantation songs, and the girls manufacturing tobacco. In the German-American division will be the beautiful floats designed by Keppler, De Grimm and other artists.

Gen. Butterfield proposes to break the record in the matter of getting great masses of men rapidly over the ground. He will group the paraders eighteen files front, with distances of only ten feet between ranks. By this means he hopes to get 7,500 men in a mile, and to march 14,000 men past a given point each hour. At this rate the reduced parade of 80,000 men would pass in seven hours.

The President Overwhelmed.

President Harrison has received such a large number of invitations for various social events that his stay in New York would be prolonged should he accept them, and he has therefore decided to decline all invitations except those relating to the official celebration of the centennial of Washington's inauguration. Among invitations declined is that of the municipal authorities of Brooklyn to attend a banquet on May 1.

No Free Stands at Union Square.

Notwithstanding Mayor Grant's declaration that he would not issue permits for new stands at the Union square unless some of them were made free, and Col. Cruger's announcement that one of the stands there would be free, the army committee has decided to charge an admission fee of $3 to every one of the stands from which to review Tuesday's great parade.

The Quadrille of Honor.

The list of ladies who have been selected to dance in the quadrille of honor at the centennial inaugural ball has been again revised. The following is now given out by Manager Stanton as the official list: Mrs. W. Astor, Mrs. A. Newbold Morris, Mrs. S. V. R. Cruger, Mrs. W. Bayard Cutting, Mrs. Edward F. Jones, Mrs. Edward Cooper, Mrs. Alexander S. Webb, Mrs. Robert F. Weir, Mrs. Levi P. Morton, Mrs. William Herbert Washington, Mrs. A. Gracie-King, Mrs. Elbridge T. Gerry, Mrs. Frederick DePeyster, Mrs. Alexander Van Rensselaer, Miss Carola Livingston, Miss Louisa Le Schuyler.

The Champagne to Be Used.

NEW YORK, April 29.—After a long and spirited contest between the numerous champagne importers and the committee of the centennial celebration, the latter have agreed, in justice to all, to select the wines to be served on that occasion according to merit. The decision reached by the committee on champagne was in favor of the Moet & Chandon brand at both the banquet and ball.

Married at Four-Score.

WOOSTER, O., April 29.—Probably the oldest couple that ever stood before a marriage altar in Wayne county is John Shilling and Mrs. Tabitha Ackerman, who have been made husband and wife at Burbank. The groom is 87 years of age, and this is his third matrimonial venture. The bride, who becomes a bride for the second time, is 83 years of age. Both are fairly well to do.

THE "KIDS" COUP.

They Pluck the Senatorial Persimmon—Doings of the Democratic Mass Meeting.

State Treasurer Sharp Endorsed for Re-Election—Delegates Selected.

The mass meeting of the Democracy of Mason at the court house Saturday got away with the record for quick work.

An organization was effected, the business was transacted and an adjournment voted in about five minutes' time by the big town clock.

And yet the meeting lasted long enough to demonstrate to the most casual observer that the "Kids" were on top. They held the trump card and played the game to suit themselves.

It was a neat little trick, quietly but effectually worked, and the "Mossbacks" didn't realize they had been caught napping until after it was all over.

The house was called to order at 2 o'clock by Major Chenoweth, Chairman of the Executive Committee. He stated the object of the meeting and the convention got down to work.

T. J. Curley was nominated for Chairman by Martin A. O'Hare and Hon. A. P. Gooding by Dr. Adamson. Mr. Gooding asked to have his name withdrawn. This was done, and Mr. Curley was unanimously elected.

Geo. W. Oldham, editor of the Call, M. F. Marsh, editor of the BULLETIN, W. P. Campbell, editor of the Democrat, and Will Havens, editor of the Dover News, were elected Secretaries. Mr. Havens arrived on the scene in time to see the meeting adjourn.

Martin A. O'Hare offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Chairman appoint a sufficient number of delegates to represent Mason County in the Democratic convention to be held at Louisville, Ky., the 8th day of May, 1889, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the office of State Treasurer. Also a like number of delegates to represent this county in the Democratic Senatorial convention to be held in this city the 14th day of May, 1889, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the office of State Senator from this district.

Resolved, That the delegates to said Louisville convention are instructed to cast the entire vote of this county for the Hon. S. G. Sharp, of Fayette County, for the office of Treasurer and to use all fair means to secure his nomination.

Resolved, It being a just and time-honored custom, and for the purpose of continued harmony and success the Democrats of Mason County in convention assembled unanimously instruct the delegates appointed to the said Senatorial convention to cast the entire vote of this county for whomever the delegates representing the Democracy of Lewis County may offer for said Senatorial nomination.

The resolutions were adopted without a dissenting voice.

Mr. Poyntz moved to adjourn. Cries of "no, no," "appoint the delegates first," were heard from several parties. Dr. Adamson and others insisted on the motion. It was voted down, and the Chairman then announced the following:

DELEGATES TO STATE CONVENTION.

T. J. Chenoweth, Thos. A. Respass, W. P. Coons, Dr. E. C. Dimmitt, T. J. Pickett, Dan Perrine, J. H. Rice, S. H. Mitchell, Joel Laytham, Dr. A. H. Wall, James E. Cahill, W. W. Baldwin, Dr. John M. Frazee, J. B. Peters, Hugh Warder, A. K. Marshall, Geo. W. Tudor, J. E. Earnshaw, Silas A. Clift, E. L. Worthington, David Frazee, Robert Marshall, Thos. M. Grogan, Dr. Parry, John J. Perrine, W. D. Hixson, Elasha Moran, W. E. Wells, A. F. Respass, J. D. Kehoe, T. M. Wood, Stanley Lee, John W. Alexander, A. Fox, John A. Coburn, James Hasson, W. P. Smoot, John R. Lashbrook, James J. Shackelford, Thos. A. Broshears, Samuel Perrine.

DELEGATES TO SENATORIAL CONVENTION.

Martin A. O'Hare, C. B. Pearce, Jr., John Mason, T. J. Curley, E. Whitaker, M. F. Kehoe, J. Chan Jefferson, W. W. Worthington, M. J. McCarthy, W. S. Watson, John Collopy, Edward Hutchinson, Thomas Cummins, T. M. Wood, James Daley, G. W. Oldham, John Wheeler, C. L. Stanton, W. L. Wallace, John Moore, Sam Raymond, John A. deacon, John Moran, Martin Concanon.

The meeting then adjourned.

Shortly after the convention adjourned the following telegram was received:

VANCEBURG, KY.,—To Charles B. Poyntz: All smooth. Halbert withdrew. Delegates instructed for you. JOHN COX.

When this news was made public the "Mossbacks" "caught on." The delegates selected here were unanimously instructed "to cast the entire vote of this county for whomever the delegates representing the Democracy of Lewis County may offer for said Senatorial nomination." Such was the resolution adopted, and it secures Mr. Poyntz the nomination, if he wants it. He expresses himself well satisfied with the situation. While he has been a candidate for Representative in this county he does not desire to oppose Dr. Frazee for that office. In addition to this he expressly stated at the start that he would not make a fight for the nomination for Representative, but would accept if it was tendered him. He has rather preferred the Senatorial nomination all along.

The result of the meetings Saturday ought to prove a satisfactory solution of the difficulty that confronts the Democracy of this county. With a "Moss back" for Representative and a "Kid" for Senator, everybody ought to be satisfied.

The following explains itself and leaves the field clear for Dr. Frazee:

A CARD FROM MR. POYNTZ.

To the Democrats of Mason and Lewis Counties: Lewis County being entitled to the Democratic candidate for State Senator, but having presented no candidate from that county, and having unanimously instructed her delegates for me, and Mason County having pledged herself to support Lewis County's choice in our next Senatorial convention, I have decided, at the earnest solicitation of many Democrats of both counties, to withdraw from the contest for Representative of Mason County, and submit my name to the Senatorial convention. Believing that my action will meet with the hearty approval of the Democratic party of our Senatorial district, I assure them, if nominated, I will use all honorable means and earnest efforts to lead the party to victory; and, if elected, I will faithfully and impartially endeavor to discharge my duty as a State Senator.

Your Obedient Servant,

CHAS. B. POYNTZ.

The delegates from Lewis are T. B. Harrison, L. U. James, John Cox, J. McElhaney, H. C. Shump, L. C. Hisey, W. H. Thomas and T. B. Bullock.

CENTENNIAL SERVICES.

The Order to be Observed at the Church of the Nativity To-morrow.

The following is a condensed programme of the service to be used at the Church of the Nativity to-morrow at 9 a. m. It is, so far as can be ascertained, substantially the same as was used one hundred years ago in St. Paul's Church, New York, when President Washington was present, and will be used again to-morrow in the same place:

Verses of Scripture.
Lord's Prayer.
O Lord, open Thou our lips.
Ans.—And our mouth shall show forth Thy praise.
O God, make speed to save us.
Ans.—O God, make haste to help us.
Glory be to the Father, &c.
Ans.—As it was, &c.
Praise ye the Lord.
Ans.—The Lord's name be praised.
Psalms, 85-118-122.
First lesson—Ecclesiasticus, 44.
Te Deum.
Second lesson—St. John, 8, v. 35.
Benedictus—Apostles' Creed.
The Lord be with you.
Ans.—And with Thy spirit.
Let us pray.
O Lord, show Thy mercy upon us.
Ans.—And grant us Thy salvation.
O Lord, bless and preserve these United States.
Ans.—And mercifully hear us when we call upon Thee.
Endure Thy ministers with righteousness.
Ans.—And make thy chosen people joyful.
O God, make clean our hearts within us.
Ans.—And take not Thy Holy Spirit from us.
Proper collects and prayers.
Hymn No. 409—"Before Jehovah's Awful Throne."
Short address by the rector.
Closing collects and benediction.

A general invitation is extended to the people of Maysville to be present at this centennial service.

AT ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH.

Solemn high mass will be celebrated at St. Patrick's Church at 9 a. m. in commemoration of the inauguration of the First President. A letter from Bishop Maes in reference to the event was read to the congregation yesterday.

AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH.

Services will also be held in the new Baptist Church to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock in honor of the event. No regular programme has been announced, but the pastors of the M. E. Church, South, the M. E. Church, the First Presbyterian, the Central Presbyterian and the Baptist Church will take part in the services. All are cordially invited to attend.

Entitled to the Best.

All are entitled to the best that their money will buy, so every family should have, at once, a bottle of the best family remedy, Syrup of Figs, to clean the system when constive or bilious. For sale in 50 cent and $1 bottles by all leading druggists.

THREE fourth-class Democratic postmasters in Scott County were fired Friday to make room for three hungry Republicans.

THE Lexington Drummer says report comes from Washington that Colonel Goodloe has been selected for Collector of this district.

Sun umbrellas have short eight-inch handles and are commonly of black or dark colored taffeta silk. Those of tan and gray pongee, with yellow handle, are lined with dark green and make a pleasant shade for the eyes.

Death of Mrs. Dr. Dougherty.

Amanda, wife of Dr. J. D. Dougherty, died yesterday morning at 7 o'clock at the home of her mother, Mrs. S. S. Miner, surrounded by her friends and loved ones. She had been in failing health for two years, and on the day of rest she quietly fell asleep, passing peacefully away.

Her husband and two children—a daughter and a son, survive her.

The funeral takes place this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Miner.

"Hark to the voices so tenderly calling
Over the river to thee,
See on thy pathway, shadows are falling
Warning thee homeward to flee,
Weary and ready to lay down life's burden.
Here the sweet call, 'Come and rest'—
Home to the waiting ones, home to thy guardian,
Up to the home of the blest."

THE BAPTIST CHURCH.

Dedication of the Handsome New House of Worship—Program of the Impressive Services.

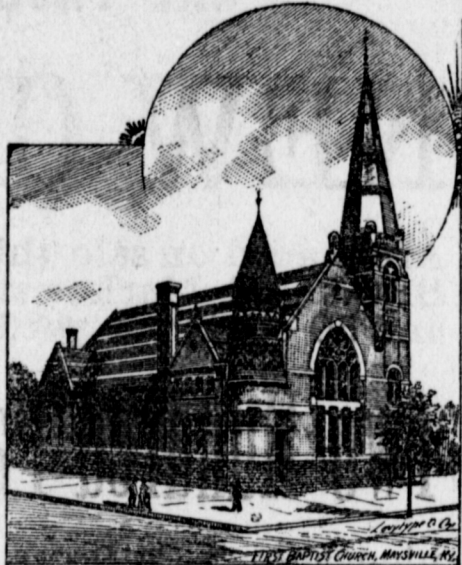

The People's Liberal Response to the Appeal for Aid—Amount of the Collections.

The elegant new Baptist Church was formally dedicated yesterday.

It was a happy and memorable day for the members of that congregation, and marked a new era in their history.

The familiar tones of the bell of the old church that marked the site for years rang out yesterday morning at 9 o'clock for the first time since the ancient structure was torn down, and called the members of the Sunday school together in their new and commodious quarters.

An hour later the doors of the church were thrown open, and from that on until 11 o'clock almost a continuous stream of people wended their way to the new edifice. The weather was gloomy and chilly and was not auspicious for such an event, but this did not keep the people at home. The two Presbyterian churches, the two Methodist churches and the Christian church had no services in order that their members might attend the dedication. The new church will comfortably seat one thousand people, and it was taxed to its capacity to accommodate the crowd that gathered in. Many had to occupy chairs that were arranged temporarily in the aisles.

The impressive services were commenced promptly at 11 o'clock with a cornet solo, "Nearer My God to Thee," which was skillfully rendered by Mr. Gay Strobe, with organ accompaniment by Miss Birdie Paddock. The choir was assisted by some of the members of the choir of the two Methodist churches and by Mr. Hal Curran, of Cincinnati. Miss Paddock presided at the organ throughout the ceremonies. At the close of the cornet solo hymn No. 271 was sung:

All hail the power of Jesus' name,
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the Royal Diadem,
And crown Him Lord of all—
Rev. Thomas Hanford, of the M. E. Church, then announced hymn 865:
To Thee this temple we devote,
Our Father and our God,
Accept it Thine, and seal it now
Thy spirit's best abode.—
The program from that on was as follows:

Reading of the scriptures—8th chapter of Romans—by Rev. John Barbour, of Mankato, Minn.

Prayer by Rev. John S. Hays, of the First Presbyterian Church.

Vocal solo—"O Jesus, Thou the Beauty Art"—Mrs. Robert Cummings.

Sermon—Subject: "The Promises of God"—Rev. T. T. Eaton, D. D., LL. D., of Louisville.

Appeal for aid.

Prayer of Dedication by Rev. Z. T. Cody, of Maysville.

Singing—Hymn 864:
Lord of hosts, to Thee we raise
Here a house of prayer and praise;
Thou Thy people's hearts prepare
Here to meet for praise and prayer.—
Benediction by Rev. J. W. Loving, of Lewisburg.

Dr. Eaton is a fluent speaker, earnest and eloquent, and his discourse was a thoughtful discussion of the rich promises of God to His people. At the conclusion of the sermon, Dr. Eaton referred to the new edifice the people had assembled to dedicate. It was a wonderful improvement on the old one. It would be a credit to any city. The congregation still owed $10,000 on the church, but $5,000 of this had been bonded. Dr. Eaton then appealed to the people for aid to pay off the floating debt. His appeal met with a liberal response, the total subscriptions amounting to $4,100. The pastor was very grateful to the people for the large subscriptions and expressed his heartfelt thanks. He expects to secure the balance of the sum required to-day.

The church cost in round numbers $25,000, aside from the ground on which it stands. A full description of the building was published in the BULLETIN some weeks ago. It is pronounced the handsomest church in the State outside of Louisville, and is one of the most conveniently arranged in all its appointments.

The faithful pastor, Rev. R. B. Garrett, and his congregation are certainly to be congratulated on such a successful termination of the work in which they have so long been engaged.

MARRIED HIS MOTHER IN LAW.

A Man from Aberdeen Breaks the Matrimonial Record—A Question for Genealogists.

[Cincinnati Enquirer.]

James H. Hall, who is about twenty-six years old, is a machinist and a man of nerve.

Of the last there can be no doubt as he has broken the matrimonial record and married his mother-in-law.

The loving couple began their honeymoon Friday, and the bride is even now struggling between the contending emotions consequent to her duplex relationship, and it is yet an open question whether the old or the new will prevail.

It was two years ago the third of this month that Hall's first wife died at their home in Aberdeen, Ohio. Hall then moved to Cincinnati, being accompanied by Mrs. Mary Miller, his mother-in-law. Hall went to live in "Devil's Hole," as the confusion of buildings known at 226 Pleasant street, is called.

THE DECEASED WIFE'S MOTHER kept house for Hall. About seven months ago they moved to No. 785 Vine street. Mrs. Miller must have either been the exception that proves the rule or the very extreme model of the generally accepted idea of a mother-in-law, for Hall conceived the idea of marrying—or maybe she did—and Friday secured from Deputy Guthardt a license to wed.

There was no dillydallying, and the two were merged into one in the parsonage of St. Mathias' Church by the pastor, Rev. Jacob Pieter. Friday night an Enquirer reporter started out to congratulate the happy one or ones. On getting license Hall had given "Devil's Hole" as his residence, and there the reporter went, only to find that he had found them, and that all

THE GIRLS WERE GIGGLING over the news of the wedding. Hall was traced to the Vine street residence, and called to the door of the bridal chamber. He is a slim-built young man, about five feet seven inches in height, and wore a rather cheerful smile and a small black moustache. The bride was invisible, but when she heard the reporter's query a giggle, apparently semi-suppressed by bedclothes, was heard, followed in soft tones by:

"Jimmie, dear, don't tell anything."

"I won't, dearie," spoke Jimmie.

Then Hall began to say that their friends knew all about the marriage.

"Jim, come here. Don't say anything," came from the hidden corner, in tones indicative of greater decision.

Jimmie closed the door, leaving himself on the outside, and tip-toeing to the head of the stairs, out of ear-shot, gave the story of the wedding.

"I DON'T FEEL AS NERVOUS as I did the first time, and, as it is all over, I don't mind telling," concluded he.

The mother-in-law-bride, is not "fat, fair and forty," as widows are generally supposed to be, but is tall, rather angular and inclined to be "sallow, slim and less than sixty."

The question puzzling the neighbors is, what relation is the bride to the child of her daughter by their mutual husband?

The bride alluded to above is the widow of Frank Miller, who resided in this city some years previous to his death. She and her second husband have a number of acquaintances here and at Aberdeen, who can puzzle themselves as much as the please over the question propounded by the Enquirer.

BOULANGISM

Takes a Drop on the General's Arrival in London.

EVEN LORD RANDOLPH CHURCHILL CAN'T LIFT HIM INTO FAVOR.

The Intelligent People of London Gradually Becoming Convinced that Home Rule is the Proper Thing for Ireland. A Minister Who Hypnotized His Subjects—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, April 29.—Boulangism in London has fallen flat, and even Lord Randolph Churchill's influence and attention cannot lift him into British favor, especially as Henri Rochefort, who is cordially despised by the English, is with him.

Drifting Toward Home Rule.

LONDON, April 29.—A healthy sign of the times which shows how far the intelligent feeling of London has drifted towards Home Rule lately, and especially since the vindication of Mr. Parnell, is the agitation that is going on at present at the London university. Some 500 graduates of this former Unionist stronghold have drawn up a formal protest against the action of Sir John Lubbock, who represent the university in parliament, in giving his continued support to the government.

The protest is a vigorous one, and denounces the government for breaking their pledges regarding Ireland, and declaring in favor of relief for the Irish. At a meeting held recently Sir John Lubbock met his critics and explained the ground on which he stood, and his reasons for supporting the government. His constituents, however, are by no means satisfied, and will proceed with the protest, which will probably result in Sir John's resignation of his seat. This will leave the field open for a Home Ruler to walk in, and doubtless the Gladstonians who have their eye on the seat will make successful effort to gain it.

A Mesmerist Preacher.

LONDON, April 29.—A curious sort of a revival is under way in the English town of Langley. A Methodist minister has succeeded in collecting about him crowds of people who flock night after night to his services.

At the close of each service the "Rev. Dimock" invited a limited number of persons to enter the ante-room to "receive the Holy Ghost." He makes passes over them, invokes the powers of the spiritual world, and succeeds in completely hypnotizing his subjects.

It sometimes happens that several of them are lying unconscious on the floor together, and that difficulty is experienced in bringing them to consciousness. When restored they are pronounced truly converted, and are said to have received the Holy Ghost.

The revival has met with an unforeseen check. An old lady whose son had been converted as above described resented the operation so furiously as to go to the chapel armed with a poker wherewith to chastise the reverend operator. Since this unseemly interruption the revival has been practically suspended. Mr. Dimock for the present confining himself to explanations of his system.

The Duchess of Cambridge.

LONDON, April 29.—The Duchess of Cambridge, for whom the English court is now in mourning, was in many respects a remarkable woman. It was only the other day, at the age of 92, she presided at a dinner party to celebrate the seventieth birthday of her son, the commander-in-chief of the British forces. Her husband died forty years ago, and yet she had thirty years of married life.

She had seen four generations of the royal family grow up, and was able to tell the queen many matters of private family history. She was an amiable princess, beloved by all who came in contact with her, devoted to music and art, and of a sprightly disposition. Her son made it a point when in town to visit his mother daily, and often twice a day. The Prince of Wales always paid his first visit after an absence from London to his "dear grand-aunt."

Favorable Comments.

LONDON, April 29.—Nearly all the London newspapers contain favorable articles concerning the approaching American centennial of Washington's inauguration. Most of the articles are noticeable for their few errors regarding American institutions, and nearly all contrast the early republic with the present, and comment at length upon the wonderful progress.

Missionaries Released.

ZANZIBAR, April 29.—Bushiri, the chief of the insurgents, has released the Rev. Mr. Roscoe and his wife, church missionaries, who were captured during the recent troubles. He still holds in captivity the Rev. Messrs. Taylor, Edward and Hopper. He will not surrender them until $1,000 is paid to him. The English consul here will pay the ransom demanded.

Foreign Notes.

News has just been received that Dr. Weissenborn, who was sent by the German government to Cameoons, at the head of a zoological expedition, died on Feb. 28 of fever.

A large body of Scotch miners have demanded an increase of 10 per cent. in their wages, and threaten a strike unless it is granted.

Emperor William refused to sign the court martial's sentence of Dr. Master Hauck, who was tried at the emperor's command for a petty offense. A new trial was ordered, and Hauck acquitted.

A new Radical Sunday penny paper, called The Sun, will shortly be published in London. It will somewhat resemble The Pall Mall Gazette in size, and will be devoted to politics, finance, sports and the drama.

Messrs. Kasson, Phelps and Bates, the American commissioners to the Samoan conference to be held next week, called Saturday afternoon upon Prince Bismarck. The call was merely a social one, and the delegates were received very cordially by the chancellor.
